About BASIN Gallery & Studios

BASIN Gallery & Studios is an independent art gallery, proudly women artist owned and operated by Liz Galvin and Jaimie Walker. Located in the Brooklyn "seaside" neighborhood of Red Hook, BASIN curates local and international artists both emerging and established.

Since opening its doors in 2022, BASIN has been dedicated to community, attainability, accessibility and is committed to fostering diversity, equity and inclusion. The cornerstone of their mission is to connect art to community in an innovative, inclusive, and impactful way.

Art enthusiasts and collectors participate in thoughtfully curated and engaging exhibits that incorporate art from a variety of contemporary genres and approaches. Experimental to traditional painting, drawing, printmaking, sculpture, ceramics, photography and regularly programmed participatory workshops led by various local artists.
